Please read this carefully and ask any questions you may have.

- All Consigned items should be in new or gently used condition. Very little fading, size tags clearly marked (no clothing with tags torn out), clothing should not be wrinkled and must be freshly washed, no stains, no missing buttons, no holes. Shoes need to be clean with very little wearing in the soles, no frayed shoelaces, and sizes clearly marked.
- Lillypads Boutique may not accept clothing older than two years old. We will not accept Garanimals, and Kid Connedtion. We specialize in name brand clothing such as: Kelly Kids, Patsy Aiken, Gap Carriage Boutique, Limited Too, Old Navy, etc. Due to sanitary purposes we can not accept undergarments such as training pants, underwear, boxers, pacifiers, and nipples. Unless they are brand new in unopened package.
- Items should be brought in neatly folded in rubber maid containers or on hangers. We will not accept items in trash bags (this causes clothing to be wrinkled and look poorly), and cardboard boxes (they are not stackable for storage). We will label your container with your consignor number and you can pick them up when you return to the store. There is a limit of two containers at a time within a two week period. This will help us in controlling our inventory and help in getting all consignor items out on a more timely basis.
- Toys and Equipment should be clean and in working condition with all parts. If batteries are required they need to be supplied. If batteries are not supplied you will be charged for batteries. VHS tapes and DVD's must be in sound and quality viewing condition. We will no longer accept stuffed animals.
- Should set up, assembly, or cleaning be required, Lillypads Boutique will charge a fee to be determined by management and to be debited from account upon settlement.
- Infant car seats should be no more than 5 years old. Please check the date on the back of the seat before bringing it in.

- Items will be viewed for the above conditions and priced based on retail allowing for factors such as age of the item, wear, and overall condition. Pricing and compensation is at the full discretion of Lillypads Boutique. Your items will be tagged with your consignor number, description of item, and priced to be merchandised in the store. Seven days after your item is sold your account will receive 47 percent of the sale.
- There will be a small buyers fee added to each item. This fee is for tagging ,printing ,bagging ,etc. This fee will be retained by the store, and is paid by the buyer.
- You may come by or call to check your account balance, as we will not mail checks to you. You may use the balance on your account for store credit or receive a check.
- At the end of season such as Spring / Summer and Fall / Winter all seasonal items will be donated or disposed of at our discretion. Please let us know if you would like for us to try to return your seasonal items to you. You will need to call for an appointment to pick up Spring / Summer items up the last week of August. For Fall / Winter items you will need to contact us the last week of February for an appointment.
- If any of the conditions in this consignor agreement are not meet, Lillypads Boutique retains the right to donate or dispose of any items at our discretion. If we choose to prepare any such items such as clean, steam out wrinkles, etc. your account will be charged a fee. However, it is not our desire to charge any such fees. So, we ask that you please prepare your items for resale.
- Lillypads Boutique or management will not be responsible for items lost due to fire, theft, accident, breakage, or any other cause.
